

DR PAUL SCHIMMEL

Public lecture: Psychoanalysis-what is it and why is it hated ?

Workshop: The thinking of Wilfred Bion

PUBLIC LECTURE: Friday 12 April 7 pm - 9.30 pm

WORKSHOP: Saturday 13 April 10 am - 3 pm

VENUE: Ferndale house, Mount Albert

FEE: Public lecture: $ 40, students $ 20

Workshop: $ 100, students $ 50

Both lecture & workshop: $ 120, students $ 60

Dr Paul Schimmel is a psychoanalyst and psychiatrist from the Australian Psychoanalytic Association. Originally from New Zealand he went to Sydney in 1996, with the intention of pursuing psychoanalytic training. He has particular interests in literature and philosophy. He is an author of two books: Sigmund Freud's discovery of psychoanalysis: Conquistador and thinker: Routledge, UK 2014 and Reading the water (a collection of poems), Steele Roberts, Wellington 2016, and a number of papers.

Recommended reading: W.R. Bion: The Long Weekend, All My Sins Remembered

Wine & cheese will follow the discussion on Friday. Morning tea will be provided on Saturday. Please book by payment on NZIPP account: 38-9016-0052471-00 by 7 April. Spaces are limited.

